

Interesting News of the Week

The Most Important Happenings of the Week
As Told by our Correspondents

Chraneville Chips

Wedding Bells are ringing. June bugs singing.

Miss Lillian Barnes is visiting relatives at Hamden.

Uncle James Emerson is laid up with a carbuncle on his face.

Rev. T. J. Shearon is having his residence painted and papered.

Rev. T. J. Shearon left Monday to be present at a wedding at Prairie Valley, Randolph Co.

Jesse Cloyd and daughter, Miss Gertrude, went to Salisbury to visit relatives Saturday.

Miss Arbell Stevenson of Centenary spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. Tom Bennett of this place.

James Taylor and Leroy Bennett have treated themselves to new buggies. They must have a girl somewhere.

Dempsey Finnell and Leroy Bennett in company with Misses Bessie May and Aletha Cavanah attended church at Scribner.

Elder Brooks and wife and Sam Stevenson was called to Brunswick Monday by the serious illness of their brother and nephew, Edd Eidson.

Dr. Hughes was called to our burg Thursday to patch little Jim Preston up. Jim and his dog had a race and the dog got the best of it.

Ye Scribe took in the hub Saturday. We brot home more than we paid for—a yellow dog with a 2x4 scar on his back. Anyone owning such property call, pay for this notice and get your dog.

North Chariton News

Mrs. M. G. Speer from Kansas City is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Farmers in this community are wearing a smile since last Mondays rain.

Lewis Carson is preparing to rebuild where his house burned a short time ago.

Winford Ray and Claude Evans visited with Buford Green near Mike last Sunday.

Miss Bertie Green closed a two months term of school at the Hardin last Friday.

W. H. Mayo, the Farmers Mutual Insurance man was in this neighborhood last week.

Lawrence Habernicht has been employed to teach the coming winter school at the Curry.

The spelling and ciphering match at the Downer chool Saturday night was well attended.

Did you ever notice that the fellow who is continually knocking his home paper is generally about seven years behind with his subscription? The booster is the man who keeps paid up.

Pee Dee Prattle

N. B. Welch delivered hogs to Judge Taylor last Wednesday at $7.25 per hundred.

The family of Dr. McAdam of Prairie Hill visited Arch Cavanah and wife last Wednesday.

Dr. Griffith was very much indisposed last week on account of rheumatic troubles, but has about recovered.

"Granny" Walter appeared to be enjoying himself hugely last Tuesday night and now the wig-wags are busy so we will just wait.

S. S. Kelso is a very sick man, and his family and friends are somewhat alarmed at his condition. We trust that he may soon be restored to his usual good health.

The wild west show has come and gone, and Roy and Troy are now convinced that riding a bad mule is not so easy after all—in fact they resembled tumblers more than riders.

Attorney General Major made an old time Democratic speech here Wednesday morning and we feel much honored that the next Governor should have made us a visit.

Elm Ridge Items

John Pruitt has returned from Nebraska.

Misses Fetzner entertained friends from Moberly Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Huckaby entertained quite a number of friends Sunday.

There will be an ice cream supper at at Elm Ridge Saturday night. Every one invited.

Prayer meeting held at Elm Ridge every Sunday at 4 p. m. Every one invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards were overjoyed Monday morning by the arrival of a big bouncing boy.

Eccles Echoes

Walter Johnson and wife shopped in Salisbury Saturday.

Ale Cox and family spent Sunday with J. C. Griffin and wife.

Odus Medlin was the guest of his cousin, John Parks, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellis Sundayed with their son, Jesse and family.

Rev. Johnson will fill his regular appointment at church next Sunday and Sunday night.

J. C. Medlin and three daughters, Misses Hattie, Elaye and Nettie were shopping in Keytesville Saturday.

Mrs. John Perkins and children returned home Monday after a two weeks visit with relatives at Milan.

We wish to thank our good neighbor, C. P. Epperley for dragging the roads and putting them in such good condition.

Misses Ollie and Georgia Horton of Mussel Fork spent from Friday until Tuesday with their sister, Mrs. Lush Foudree.

Mrs. Boyd Kline of Kansas City, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Kinzie for the past two weeks returned home Thursday.

Salisbury Squibblings

Elder H. M. Hale went to East St. Louis this week to see his family, visiting there.

There was no preaching services at the Christian church Sunday morning on account of the absence of the pastor.

Two candidates for governor have "orated" here and we are waiting for the other three. Our people seek the best.

A letter from Lee Johnson at Bartow, Fla., says that he and his wife are delighted with that country, and will make it their future home.

Genevieve Gallemore was bitten on the arm by a dog Tuesday afternoon, but the wound was slight. It is hoped no serious results will follow.

The all day and night current at the light house is proving a money maker for the city, as our people are taking hold of all the labor savers in earnest.

Miss Kate Gallemore left for Fayette this week, where she will spend her vacation, her school at Washington having closed a few days ago.

Bank president J. W. Luck is farming this week, and those seeking his services must call him from the plow as they did Cincinnatus of old.

James H. Cruse, father of our Charlie, from Savannah, Okla., has been here for some time on a visit to his son.

The Republican Central committee met here Monday and agreed on a ticket for the August primary in this county. The position for public administrator was not filled, but left open for

$300 - CASH PRIZE DRAWING - $300 Mercantile Association

of Keytesville, Mo., offers the following prizes to the holders of the winning tickets:

1st Grand Cash Prize	:	:	$100.00
2nd grand cash prize	:	:	50.00
3rd grand cash prize	:	:	25.00
5 cash prizes, $10 each	:	:	50.00
15 cash prizes, $5 each	:	:	75.00

Buy your goods of the following named merchants, and for every dollar in cash you pay for merchandise or on account, you will be entitled to receive a ticket good in the drawing for the above named cash prizes. No merchant below named or any member of such merchant's family, can hold a ticket in the drawing. The merchants in this association are:

A. F. Arrington	Lumber and Hardware	Fix It Tailor Shop	Tailoring
L. B. Thrash	Groceries	Blair Miller	Dry Goods
Agee Bros.	Clothiers	O. A. Hocker	Groceries
B. F. Brewer, Jr.	Grocers, Gents' Furnishings	H. M. Sigloch	City Drug & Jewelry Store
T. F. White	Dry Goods	Perkins & Hurt	Millinery
Milton Bennett	Shoes and Harness	Anna Rucker	Millinery
E. M. Carter	Telephone Co.	John Lewis	Meats
Mason & Hansman	Feed Exchange	E. B. Kellogg	Chariton Courier
C. L. White	Groceries	Herring's Pharmacy	Drugs & Jewelry
Adams & Newsom	Hardware	O. F. Leftwitch	M. D.
Racket Store	Dry Goods, Hosiery, Und'wr.	S. M. White	Groceries
R. J. Halley	Groceries	W. H. Burns	Groceries
A. Keeting	Blacksmith & Implements	Peters Dry Goods Co.	Dry Goods and Ready-to-Wear
M. B. Hunt	Furniture & Undertaking	A. V. Simmon	Tailor Shop
White Drug Co.	Drugs and Jewelry	A. M. Child	Editor Recorder
A. C. Seiser	Dentist	Waller Clo. Co.	Gents' Clothing
E. P. Stamper	Poultry Business	Moore Ice Co.	Ice
J. P. Tippet	Farm Implements	Stamper & Sterner	Blacksmiths & Impl's
J. C. Rucker	Furniture and Undertaking

The drawing for these prizes will positively take place at

Price's Park in Keytesville, Mo., July 4, '12

between two and four o'clock in the afternoon. The holder of the winning ticket must have it on the ground at the time it is announced, or the next number drawn will get the prize. No deviation from this rule under any circumstances. The drawing will be done from a platform in the presence of all, and you are guaranteed that if you hold the lucky number and HAVE IT THERE, you will get the prize it calls for, otherwise you will not.

In addition to the above chance to get back your money and more, competition is met by all the lines above represented. You will get as big a dollar's worth as you can anywhere, regardless of being lucky.

TRADE IN KEYTESVILLE

Fortunes Made In Oil

—More quick money is made in oil than in any other industry. Many persons holding leases in the famous "Glenn Oil Pool" of Oklahoma made fortunes over night.

The recent discovery of the "Cushing Oil Pool" gives every indication of surpassing the Glenn Pool. We were lucky in securing leases in such fine territory. Your chance to get in on the ground floor is to

Purchase Oil Well Coupons

These coupons give the small investor the same chance as the millionaire.

WHAT OIL WELL COUPONS PAY: A $10 Series "D" Oil Well Coupon pays $100 Cash upon bringing in a 500 bbl. producer. A $10 Series "D" Oil Well Coupon pays $50 Cash upon bringing in a 250 bbl. producer, Etc., Etc.

IS OIL A SAFE INVESTMENT? The government reports show that nine out of ten wells strike oil in this field. This is a larger percentage of gain than in any other line of business.

DON'T DELAY—Only a limited number of coupons issued. Full particulars upon request. Make checks, money orders, Etc., payable to the future action. Their work was done so quietly and quickly that it created no stir. Those selected will not bother about making any canvass, but leave the office to seek the man.

Premier Oil Company
P. O. Building TULSA, OKLA.

REFERENCE—All Banks and Oil Companies with whom we do business.

B. F. Fleetwood of Triplett was here Monday on business, but said he did not come to attend the g. o. p. committee meeting.

The recent showers have caused the faces of our farmer friends to shorten wonderfully and shaves can again be had for a dime. It does us good to see them happy and smiling.

J. D. Dunn has been on the sick list several days, with enlargement of the prostate gland. He is improving.

An effort will be made by some of our local socialist to have Eugene Debby as one of the Chautauqua attractions next summer. We hope it will succeed as Debby is a live wire.

Two welcome visitors to our town this week, have been Meedames Branham and Harphe of Columbia, formerly of this place—they are favorites here and we are always glad to see them.

Some advertised views of the Titanic disaster brought out a large crowd at the moving picture show, Monday night and all got the worth of their money.

J. A. Taylor and wife have been smiling more than usual, for several days, because of the presence of their daughter, Aline, Mrs. Cass Mayo, and son of Tulsa, Okla. Mrs. Mayo is looking remarkably well, and has one of the finest babies we ever saw.

Attorney General Majors spoke here Tuesday night to a large audience, and pleased his hearers immensely. His speech of an hour and a half was filled with humor, logic and facts that brought round after round of applause and his tribute to the old fashioned Missouri girl was the finest ever heard here in years. His address was preceded by a trio of singers, headed by Mayor Edwards, with Mrs. Joe W. Ingram at the organ, that put everybody in fine humor and when they rendered the "Houn Dawg," the house came down uproariously and Champ Clark must have heard it in Washington. It was a great speech, delivered by a great man, and will be answered in November.

The Demons of the Swamp

are mosquitoes. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the key chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out all malaria germs from the blood; give you fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucas, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver, and kidney ills. 50 cents at all druggists.

Cole Younger and his nephew and manager left Thursday morning for Salisbury where he lectured last night.

More or Less

She. What do you mean by saying that Elsa is "more or less pretty?"

He. Well, she's more pretty than most girls and less pretty than you.—Simplexissimus

Under Suspicion

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darius Downey of Newberg Junction, N. B., writes, "My wife has been using Chamberlain's Tablets and finds them very effectual and doing her lots of good." If you have any trouble with your stomach or bowels give them a trial. For sale by all druggists.

Friends here have received letters from Miss Sarah Lockhart the young lady who taught music in the High School here last term saying she would leave for Cincinnati Ohio soon to take teachers course in music at the Conservatory. Miss Lockhart gave good satisfaction here last term and has the promise of it this year if she wants it.

Among those who attended the Cole Younger lecture at the Court House here Wednesday night from Eccles were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gribble and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Phelps and Mrs. Bettie Phelps-Riley.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Miss Christine Arnsmeier of north of town was shopping here Tuesday.